Maybe you've noticed that school tasks are exactly the same no matter where you go or what class you take. Evernote's in-app camera will detect your scan as a business card and pull all its information into a Business Card note that you can then preview and edit before saving. Learn more » Have you ever thought of school as something you can predict? Add any templates you'd want your team to use into the "Templates" notebook. You can even predict that a pop quiz will come when you least expect it. Evernote Premium users can also annotate PDF documents attached to notes. You'll take notes, you'll listen to lectures, you'll write papers, you'll take exams. If you want to share a template with classmates, click Share—>Share Notebook. Use this template to capture points from each speaker, and follow their presentation slides as you type or write. Images you recently scanned are temporarily kept in a gallery where they're easily managed. Somebody has to take meeting notes, organize agendas, manage projects, keep track of goals and budgets, create marketing plans, and brainstorm ideas. Though your planners will all be filled with different activities, count on having a daily to-do list, weekly tasks, and monthly obligations. You'll notice the in-app camera has been streamlined and now consists of simply two photo-capturing modes: a default automatic mode and a manual mode. Then, set up a reminder in Evernote to help you stay on track.
